

Collaborative Name	N C London
Date of Event	19 September 2006
Attendance	Robert Mitchell; Mark Brackley; Peter Rowntree; Daphne Williams; Katharine Gilligan. 2 guests from Germany visiting churches and chaplaincies in London.
Summary of discussion	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Discussion about the proposal to create a pan-London Chaplaincy Collaborative. Appreciation of benefits of meeting in area groups. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Variations <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. Pan-London Collaborative meeting annually while retaining local meetings as at present.</li> <li>ii. N and S London Collaborative</li> </ol> </li> </ol> </li> <li>2. Local Issues – <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Involvement of Jehovah’s Witnesses as Chaplaincy Volunteers or JW Visitors for JW patients</li> <li>b. Staff support</li> <li>c. Visiting patients</li> <li>d. Finding better way of capturing data/MDS</li> <li>e. How to collect data and put it into printable form</li> <li>f. Try to get funding to re-order chapel as a prayer room with a new Christian chapel area</li> <li>g. Appointing for 0.5 Hospice post (RFH)</li> <li>h. To regain input on Induction programme</li> <li>i. Setting up a consent system</li> </ol> </li> </ol>
Summary of action agreed	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. SH to email all London chaplains with 2nd proposal – creation of N and S London Collaboratives</li> <li>2. Members to send SH details of involvement in provision of education to nurses; doctors; ordinands etc.</li> </ol>
Resources generated for inclusion	