

Collaborative Name	S E London
Date of Event	13 September 2006
Attendance	Qaisra Khan; David Flagg; Mia Hilborn; Diana Coutts; Mark Sutherland; David Rushton; Susan Hollins (LC)
Summary of discussion	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What evidence is there that Foundation Trusts have to include chaplaincy? 2. South London and the Maudsley: MDS computer programme now running. It shows a wide variety of things chaplains do. Engenders enthusiasm in other staff from knowing what chaplains do. 3. SLAM – Kings Fund Pilot in Wards – monitoring the capturing of patient's religion 4. HEI connections: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Georgiana Heskins involved in Reader Training, Diocese of Southwark. Sue Hoad is Administrator for all training in Southwark. b. SLAM runs diocesan training event. c. SLAM/MS facilitated groups of combined medical school 1st year students module d. DF provides some training sessions at S Bank University Nursing and Midwifery course. Also teaches Bereavement and Cultural awareness in modules F1 & F2 medical training; + 3 extra modules – meaning and illness; bereavement; reflective practice. 5. Future shape of the Collaborative – discussion: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Current Collaboratives too small in attending membership to be viable b. Do we need an SHA link in the new dispensation? c. Need to self-organise d. CHCC to be main focus for at least training and education purposes e. What will be useful? A pan – London Collaborative? A N London and a S London Collaborative?
Summary of action agreed	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. DH to email SH with detail of his involvement in Medical training 2. All other members to email SH with detail of any involvement in HEI's in terms of chaplaincy input to training syllabus for nurses, doctors, ministerial formation 3. SH to email members about the proposal for a pan-London Collaborative 4. MH to include this proposal in London region CHCC steering group
Resources

generated for inclusion
----------------------------	--